BUILDING SCIENCE COURSES

You probably notice that we will be introducing our new Building Science courses in Baton Rouge on Wednesday, March 25th as a part of the NORMI Regional Training. This is the beginning of an entire series of classes (14 in total) designed to better educate Building Contractors and Home Inspectors on the theories of building.

Our goal is to put most of these classes ONSITE and ONLINE and they will become the foundation for our NORMI Certified Durable Builder program that supports the Healthier Home Warranty. You didn't hear much about the HHW in 2008 because we have been working to develop this program in a way that will help you market your business(es) and strengthen the NORMI brand in the marketplace. We know there is a great need and desire, we just wanted to make sure our program fills that void. Stay tuned for more information...you will love it!
