NORMI invites you to join us at the NORMI Training Conference 2009, to be held on January 18-21, 2009, in Orlando at the Holiday Inn International Drive. The venue is close to family entertainment, high-end and medium priced shopping malls, a ton of restaurants and, of course, Disney and Universal Studios. Many members are planning on staying a couple of extra days so they and their families can take in the sites of the number one vacation spot in the world.

You can expect to hear success stories, case studies, technology trainings, financials education, marketing plans, and much, much more! We will want your input as you share your experiences and knowledge of our industry. Network, discuss and find solutions to the challenges you experience in the field and learn relevant solutions to the issues you face. A panel of experts will provide LIVE help and become an invaluable source for your success.

Plan to be a part of this event by registering early so you will save money. Get the credibility you deserve!
