EDITORIAL

Memorial Day is a time to reflect on the incredible sacrifice so many have made for our freedom—a freedom we often take for granted and our politicians seem to want to erode. My dad was a veteran of WWII and even though he is no longer with us, how could his sacrifice ever be forgotten?

It is not about my dad that this editorial is written. It is about YOU and ME. We are the recipients of an incredible legacy of sacrifice. So many have given up the freedom of their youth, exchanged it for the servitude of a “private”, so that we could continue with the freedom of our old age. What an unselfish deed they have performed.

As entrepreneurs we can choose to work when we want, charge what we want, hire who we want, work for whom we want, and so on and so on. How many people are enslaved to an ungrateful employer who sucks the very life out of their dream for a better living? It is sad, isn't it? We, on the other hand, create a destiny for ourselves. If we want more money, we simply work harder. If we want to get better, we work smarter. We have the freedom to accomplish what we want limited only by our resources and weaknesses.

THERE ARE ONLY TWO WORDS THAT DESCRIBE THE MEANING OF MEMORIAL DAY.
"THANK YOU"

SO, this weekend, take the time to thank a vet. And then say a prayer for those who have been willing to serve thanking the Lord that we live in America! I will. DDH
