BUILDING SCIENCE CLASSES
NOW LIVE ONLINE

Each class will be presented twice at 9amEST and 7pmEST NORMI LIVE Talking Studio using a password supplied once you register for the class. Handouts will be emailed to you so you can print them out in time to take notes at the class AND you can ask questions!!

$25 per class

09/17 Non-Vented Attics—Why is this the BEST way to build?
09/24 IAQ Basics—In consideration of filters/purifiers.
10/08 Anti-Microbials on Substrates—Why is this necessary?

REGISTER EARLY!

Many of our class attendees wait to register for classes until the last minute. This has forced us to establish “cutoff” dates for both ONSITE and LIVE ONLINE classes. Why? Here are four reasons...

Our Credentials are Growing?

Are yours?

1. We want to get passwords, literature, and directions to you, our students, as soon as possible so you can plan in advance for the class,
 2. Many hotels and other venues have established “drop-dead” cancellation policies that require financial penalties when classes are cancelled too close to the event date—this makes our class prices higher,
 3. Travel is much less expensive four to six weeks BEFORE the event and booking early allows us to pass those savings along to the students,
 4. Printing materials for the class, setting appropriate Admin personnel and shipping materials to a venue is less expensive when done far in advance of the class date—it’s ground shipping versus expedited shipping, and,
 5. Without early planning, life takes control of us instead of us taking control of it...if you don’t have a plan for your life, someone else does!
- So, the admonition is to book early. We have several classes planned and those classes will only happen when we know our costs are covered and we can be properly prepared to serve you! Don’t delay!
