FINANCIAL UNCERTAINTY on Wall Street touches Main Street

Well, it has been quite a ride the last couple of weeks, as lawmakers try to figure out how to use your resources to bail-out a banking industry that has been out of control for many years. There are simply too many zeros in a "billion" to even comprehend the magnitude of the problem. Where can you find optimism? You are working for yourself. You are creating your own future. You are developing your own business! Will things get worse before they get better? Probably. Will people continue to pay for what they want? Probably. NOW is the time to step up your advertising efforts because if, in fact, the pie is shrinking, YOU need a bigger piece.

America will bounce back—it always does. It may sound pollyannish but hang in there, things will get better and the faithful WILL survive...always have!! D
