Merry Christmas from the NORMI Team...The Schedule

What an incredible year we've had and now is the time to rest, reflect, and plan for the new year. Your support has been incredible and an invaluable part of our ability to meet so many goals. Thank you.

Many of the plans we made last January have been accomplished and that was done, in part, by your willingness to grow with us. You weren't harsh in your criticisms and you were supportive even through our shortcomings and for that we thank you.

The holiday season means a lot of different things to different people. To some it is a time to think about their faith and the impact historical events have had on their lives. For others, it's simply about family and sharing time with those we love.

Whatever YOUR feelings, we want you to know that we think about both but, additionally, are grateful for the business relationship we sustain through NORMI. Thank you.
